

Get real-world experience with Home Inspector Field Training

by Carson Dunlop

This hands-on field training program allows you to apply what you've learned as a student and refine your skills in a safe, comfortable environment. There is no substitute for experience — and this is a great way to get it.

How Field Training helps

By working in real-world situations, you'll increase your confidence and competence while reducing your liability.

You'll learn to avoid the mistakes most new inspectors make and learn tricks of the trade that only seasoned veterans know. You'll prepare yourself for test inspections and peer reviews — and more importantly, ensure your success in the world of home inspections.

Three-day program $880

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Developed by Carson Dunlop to complement our Home Inspection Training Program, this three-day program will help prepare you for success in home inspection. It is available to Carson Dunlop graduates and includes three eight-hour sessions, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Each day you will inspect a different house with an experienced Inspector acting as your Instructor. With the Instructor's guidance you will write reports, compare your reports with the Instructor's and discuss specific report items. You will have the opportunity to ask questions while learning tricks of the trade and gaining hands-on experience.

This low-stress process is designed entirely for your benefit. You don't have to present to the group or submit your reports, and there is no test to pass.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTORS

You will work with an experienced home inspector and trainer of home inspectors. Our Instructors are leaders in the home inspection industry, with strong technical and field experience and great communication skills. We provide a multi-faceted experience designed to help you succeed.
